

PIRES CONFESSES TO KILLING GADDIS

REFUSAL OF DOLLAR GIVEN AS REASON FOR COMMITTING CRIME

SHOWS EMOTION AS HE TELLS HIS STORY

Written Confession is Obtained by State's Attorney Robinson and Sheriff Weatherford—The Coroner's Jury Had Previously Recommended That Pires be Held

Ellsworth Pires, seventeen years old, late yesterday afternoon confessed to the murder of his step-father, James T. Gaddis of Concord precinct. Failure of the man to grant his request for a dollar resulted in the tragedy, the boy declared. The confession was made to State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson and Sheriff W. H. Weatherford at the county jail, where Pires had been held for 24 hours on recommendation of Coroner Rose.

The confession came after a conference with the attorney and sheriff lasting not more than half an hour. "Yes, I did it," said Pires, and his slight frame was shaken with emotion. "I shot my step-father after he had refused to give me the money for which I asked. It made me very angry when he told me that I had better stop running around the country and attend to work on the farm."

"I went from the wheat field to the farm house, secured the gun and then went back to the field and fired the shot." Some other details were given and the lad, who was under some emotion, seemed to feel better after the story had been told.

Coroner Rose began the hearing of testimony at Concord near the noon hour Friday. After the examination of a group of witnesses a verdict was returned in which the jurors recommended that in view of all the circumstances Pires be held to await the action of the grand jury.

Sheriff Weatherford and State's Attorney Robinson were present at the inquest. Every known witness who could throw the least light upon the tragedy was examined and it was after the hearing of the testimony of these witnesses that the verdict was returned.

Coroner Rose, the state's attorney and sheriff, returned to Jacksonville about 4:30 o'clock. Just at 5 o'clock State's Attorney Robinson and Sheriff Weatherford went to the jail to talk to Pires, and to tell him the result of the inquest.

Visit Prisoner in Jail
Mr. Robinson told the lad that the jury had recommended that he be held. "The stories you have told," said the state's attorney, "do not hang together. There are contradictions in them and the jurors didn't believe that you told the truth when you said you found the gun lying on the ground where Mr. Gaddis was killed and carried it to the house. This story doesn't go. Why not come clean and tell the truth about this whole bad affair? The best thing that can happen to you is to tell just the real facts. Didn't you fire the shot yourself that caused the death of your step-father?" Pires stoutly maintained that he told the truth and that nothing had been held back.

The conference between the two, and in which Sheriff Weatherford occasionally took part, along these lines for half an hour. Then as he left the cell and went to the corridor outside the state's attorney told the young prisoner goodbye and expressed regret that the boy did not see fit to tell all the facts.

"You are not taking the right course, Ellsworth," said the state's attorney, "but I have asked you time and again to make a clean breast of it and that's all that I can do."

Pires decides to Talk
As Mr. Robinson passed on down the corridor Sheriff Weatherford noticed that Pires was weakening and said to the prisoner: "Ellsworth, if you haven't told the truth to the state's attorney the best thing to do is to call him back and out with it."

"I'll do it," said Pires. "I killed Mr. Gaddis and I am going to tell the facts."

Sheriff Weatherford called to Mr. Robinson and then quickly Pires gave the details of the tragedy which have already been narrated. "I am sorry, Mr. Robinson," he said, "I told you a lie a while ago but now I am going to tell the whole truth. My step-father wouldn't give me the money I asked for. I wanted a dollar to buy gasoline for the car to take a trip. When I asked him for the money he told me no and said that I had better

CONFESSES GUILT

"I, Charles Ellsworth Pires, aged 17 years, of Concord, in the county of Morgan, in the State of Illinois, of my own free will and accord, and without promise of reward or immunity, and after being warned and advised as to my rights and after being told that what I now subscribe will later be used against me, do hereby declare that on Thursday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock P. M., Oct. 5, 1921, I shot with a shot gun and killed James T. Gaddis, my step-father, in a field south of his residence on his farm about one mile east of Concord, Morgan county, Illinois."

CHINA'S REPLY TO JAP PROPOSALS IS GIVEN OUT FRIDAY

Declare Japan Has Advanced No Acceptable Plan

(By The Associated Press)
PEKING, Oct. 7.—The text of China's reply to the proposals of the Japanese government concerning a settlement of the Shantung controversy made public today declares that Japan has advanced no plan for a settlement which is fundamentally acceptable to the Chinese government and people and that the Chinese government feels that there is much in the new proposals "still incompatible with the Chinese government's repeated declarations, the Chinese people's hopes and aspirations and the principles laid down in Chinese treaties with foreign powers."

CASHIER CHASES BANK ROBBER

(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 7.—A bandit held up the Turner State Bank at Turner, Kansas, two miles west of Kansas City, Kan., late today and escaped with $951 in cash.
The bandit rode up to the bank in a motor car with two other men. He entered and holding off Fred Duffin, cashier, the only occupant of the bank, with a revolver, scooped up the money in sight and ran to a waiting motor car.
Duffin followed in his motor and the bandit leaped from his car and fled into a wooded tract. Duffin fired several shots at him. The two men in the car surrendered to Duffin and told him they were employees of a Kansas City, Kan., garage who had been engaged to drive the bandit and knew nothing of his intentions until he ran out of the bank with his hands full of money.

JOE KELLEY IS VICTIM OF HOLDUP MEN

Joseph Kelley, who lives on East Dunlap street, was held up and robbed by two men last night about 7 o'clock on North Main street a short distance from the railroad. The robbers obtained $4 in cash, a watch, knife and a pair of spectacles.
Mr. Kelley has for years been a bookkeeper at the Ayers National Bank, and was on his way home. It was too dark for him to see the holdups distinctly but he believes that they were white men.

GIANTS AWAKEN FROM LETHARGY TRAMP ON YANKS

American League Rivals Buried Under Avalanche of Hits

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The Giants awoke from their two days of lethargy today and sprinkled the green sward at the Polo Grounds with such a shower of hits that the Yankees were swamped under a score of 13 to 5 in the third game of the world series.

The National Leaguers had gone unscathed for twenty innings up to the third session of this afternoon's struggle. Then the outbreak of hitting started.

Stealing the Yankee's thunder as the latter had stolen theirs in the previous games of the series in speed and daring on the bases, John McGraw's men, after spotting their American League opponents to a four run lead promptly cancelled this advantage driving Bob Shawkey, who had started for Miller Huggins' team off the mound in the third inning. Then after the score had run along in a tie for three innings they broke out with an array of hitting against second string Yankee pitchers in the traditional "lucky seventh" in a big putting over eight runs in this chapter and piling up a total of thirteen runs and twenty hits in their eight innings at the bat.

Despite its oneness the game was of a sort that tickles the fancy of the average baseball crowd and today's throng, despite the partisan leanings of a goodly portion of it, was no exception.

The Game full of Thrills

The game was full of thrills, brilliant catches, daring base running, and on the Giant side long distance hitting. The crowd with perfect baseball weather to bring it out, was a record breaker for this series. More than 36,500 fans jammed the stands and bleachers. They broke the series record for noise and enthusiasm as well. The turn of the Yankee adherents came first but the hubbub they kicked up was as nothing to that let loose by the Giant fans when their opportunity arrived.

With the McGraw clan riding rough-shod over their opponents the National League partisans unlimbered their vocal chords, their cowbells and rattles, heretofore subdued, and played the game as hard from their seats as their favorites did on the diamond.

At times whole sections of the stands seemed to be composed of seething waves of yelling hordes. The Yankee supporters were dumb after the third inning and the close of the conflict became a Giant carnival.

The Yankee fielders stood up well under the bombardment of hits and incidentally turned in some notable defensive feats.

One of these was a jumping catch in the second inning by Ward, the Yankee second sacker, which resulted in a double play. It was George Burns, the Giant's centerfielder, however, who turned in the most remarkable feat of game and also of the series. In the seventh inning he started back with the crack of Pitcher Quinn's bat against the ball and while still on the run hauled down to the centerfield shoulder a close fly ball which was a marvelous piece of fielding and it drew a big demonstration from the crowd. All the Giants with the exception of Toney and Kelly figured in the hitting. Toney was taken from the game before he had a chance to bat. Burns and Snyder did the batting honors, each making four hits. Burns' hitting included a double and a triple. Toney had a double and a triple. Kelly had a double and a triple.

Ruth Has a Colorful Day

Babe Ruth had another colorful day compared with some of his work during the season's campaign. In four trips to the plate he struck out twice, made a single which scored two Yankee runs and drew a base on balls. He left the game in the eighth inning after he had received a base on balls, Fewster running for him and scoring a run. It was said the home run was suffering from an infected arm. In the fielding side he had but one chance, capturing Bancroft's sacrifice fly. The game which ended so lopsidedly started out as if it might be another one like the money he started for yesterday. Toney breezed along com-

The accident was caused by their car skidding on the freshly oiled road, throwing it into a ditch.

BODY OF SAILOR COMES TO SURFACE

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 7.—The body of John Edward Dreifeld of Moline, Ill., one of two sailors whose lives were lost in the sinking of the submarine K-6 in Los Angeles harbor recently, rose to the surface of the water today, about twenty feet from where the craft sank.

Naval officers said they hoped to complete the raising of the D-6 by tomorrow.

Republican Senate Leaders Announce Them Formally

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Amendments to the pending tax revision bill agreed to by Republican leaders in the senate were made public today formally in advance of their consideration tomorrow by majority members of the finance committee. They would provide for:

"A maximum surtax rate of fifty per cent on that part of incomes in excess of $200,000, in lieu of the committee plan for a 32 per cent maximum on the excess over $56,000.

Repeal of the express, freight, passenger and Pullman transportation taxes, effective at the passage of the bill.

An increase from $2.20 a gallon to $4 a gallon in the tax on distilled spirits produced, imported or withdrawn from bond for use for industrial, medicinal or other purposes.

Repeal of the capital stock tax of $1 on each $1,000 of invested capital.

A graduated increase in the estate tax rates to a maximum of fifty per cent on the excess over $100,000,000 in lieu of the present maximum of 25 per cent over $10,000,000.

Repeal of the excises on export goods, chewing gum, perfumes, essences, tooth and mouth washes and pastes, dentifrices, toilet powders and other miscellaneous taxes sufficient to make up a cut of $37,000,000 annually.

Elimination of the proposed tax on hotel accommodations.

Reduction in the tax on candy to three per cent with elimination of the committee proposals for a ten per cent tax on candy selling at wholesale for more than forty cents a pound.

The other excise provisions of the senate bill would stand, including repeal of the excess profits tax next January 1, a flat tax of 15 per cent on corporation incomes and increased exemptions for heads of families and on account of dependents.

While repeal of the $2,000 exemption allowed corporations is not included in the program as announced leaders were endeavoring tonight to work out a plan which would protect small corporations and at the same time remove the exemption from large corporations. The suggestion meeting with the most favor was to allow the exemption in the case of corporations having net incomes of less than $20,000 or $25,000.

Opposition to the surtax rates developed today among a group of senators from Eastern States and they were understood to be preparing to wage an active fight against a fifty per cent maximum. There also was some opposition among these senators to excise tax rates.

House leaders also declared against increasing the surtax rate beyond the 32 per cent maximum fixed in the bill as it passed the house.

Express Themselves Frankly

Representative Mondell of Wyoming, the Republican leader and Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee expressed themselves very frankly on this subject before going into a conference with Chairman Penrose, of the senate finance committee to discuss the changes as agreed to by the senate leaders.

In making public the proposed senate amendments Senator Penrose said they were offered by certain senators "in patriotic and amiable spirit" and that he did not understand that they were arbitrary or final. Declaring that he did not regard them as contributing radical innovations disturbing the structure of the committee measure the finance committee chairman said many of them were in no way objectionable to him.

"I have no objection," he said, "to repeal of the nuisance taxes, transportation taxes and hotel tax. I have not had time to study all of the other proposals."

The det change in the estimated revenue as a result of the amendments as proposed was placed by treasury experts at an increase of $11,000,000 in the $3,324,000,000 total of the pending bill.

NEWBERRY TAKES SEAT IN SENATE

Washington, Oct. 7.—Senator Newberry, Republican, Michigan, today took his seat in the senate for the first time since the filing of committee reports on the contest brought by Henry Ford.

AMERICAN SHIPPERS UNDERBID ENGLISH ON EGYPTIAN COTTON

Make the Rate to American Ports Ten Shillings Under That Offered by British—Is the Result of Inability to Reach an Agreement With the British Shipping Conference

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Shippers of Egyptian cotton from Alexandria have been offered a rate to American ports ten shillings under that quoted by the British shipping conference which now controls the business, shipping board officials disclosed today. The new rate is effective immediately and one American cotton user who did not sign the contract offered by British interests is already moving his business at the low figure, it was said.

Action by the shipping board was taken after negotiations in England thru which American participation in the Alexandria cotton movement to American markets were sought were broken off by the board's representatives. Board officials made it plain that they were preparing to fight for the business on a straight competitive basis and felt that in the course of the British negotiations that they had met treatment that made them welcome the fight.

A statement issued in connection with the breaking off of negotiations said:

"As a result of direct negotiations with the liners' principals in England, the former offered to relinquish to American bottoms fifty per cent of the direct sailings between Alexandria and the United States; stating that it was not possible for the liners to make any arrangements with regard to the indirect traffic that is so often moving to the states with trans-shipment at an English port, claiming that this was a matter of negotiation between the American trans-Atlantic steamers and the Atlantic west bound conference, the agreement to run for a period of five years.

Reasons for Declining
"Our reasons for declining this offer were that:

"The offer contemplated giving us fifty per cent of the sailings but did not guarantee to us fifty per cent of the cotton and, seeing that contracts were in existence between the British conference and the cotton shippers for the season 1921-22, and further seeing that there was an insurance disability against American steamers, we were not at all satisfied that fifty per cent of the sailings would in any way mean to us fifty per cent of the tonnage, we being further advised that the principal owners of one of the British lines was a very large stockholder or connected thru subsidiary companies with the cotton presses and gins in Alexandria, also that much of the banking necessary in connection with the movement of this valuable crop was in the hands of financial institutions affiliated with British institutions of a similar character.

"With respect to the indirect movement, the bulk of this business moves on a thru rate, and seeing that a number of lines carrying this cotton from Alexandria to the United Kingdom also control lines from the United Kingdom to the United States, we felt it was hardly possible for American boats trading out of Liverpool to get anywhere near a fair proportion of this traffic.

"The existing contracts entered into for the current movement as between the British conference and the association of shippers specifically provides that no cotton shall move either direct or indirect to the United States in other than British bottoms.

"To have accepted the agreement therefore would have meant a modification of same would have placed us in a very doubtful position. This contract also provides that no Egyptian cotton shipper can sell his goods except on a C. I. F. basis. This means that the cotton is sold, laid down in a United States port and the routing of same controlled by the shipper who is dominated by the British conference in Alexandria."

A CROSS COUNTRY TRIP

J. Allerton Palmer returned yesterday from a 15 days' vacation trip. It was not of the usual kind, for Mr. Palmer started out on a tramp. He took the train from Jacksonville to Chapin and then started to walk along the Ocean to Ocean highway. His journey took him thru Keokuk, then out to Ottumwa, Iowa, and the returning journey made up a total of near the 500 mile mark. He did not walk all this distance as automobile drivers frequently gave him a "lift."

This is not the first time that Mr. Palmer has taken such expeditions and he thoroughly enjoys a vacation spent in this way.

SMALL'S LAWYERS FAIL TO APPEAR FOR CONFERENCE

Judge Burton Probably Will Name
County for Trial

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 7.—Governor Small's lawyers failed to appear for their scheduled conference with State's Attorney Mortimer today.

Werner W. Schroeder, the governor's confidential man, left the capital this morning. Charles C. Leforgee of Decatur, chief counsel for the defense in the Small embezzlement case, had sent no word to the state's attorney tonight. The conference set for today was arranged in another effort to agree on the mooted question of venue and settle upon some county acceptable to both sides as a place in which to go to trial.

With one changed list of counties submitted by the other, and it was for the purpose of going over these lists that the conference for today was agreed upon. Next Tuesday at the farthest it is expected to see the question of venue definitely settled. On that day counsel for the governor will appear before Judge Frank W. Burton to argue on their petition for a transfer of the case. Judge Burton, it was said tonight, will probably then name the county to which the case will be sent regardless of the outcome of any conferences which might be held before next Tuesday morning.

CASS COUNTY I. O. O. F. MET AT AREZVILLE

Cass county I. O. O. F. enjoyed a meeting with Arenzville lodge No. 481 Thursday night. The lodges were represented as follows: Ashland, 8; Beardstown, 21; Virginia, 12; Arenzville, 15, making a total of 58 members of the order. A supper was served and the whole program was one which the Odd Fellows thoroughly enjoyed. In addition to regular lodge affairs a number of matters of interest to the order were discussed.

Statistics show that there are 4,000 children in this country that need adoption. In considering the sad plight of the orphans of Europe it is quite evident that there are some problems at home that are worthy of most serious attention.

Judge Olson says that the way to improve society is to segregate the unfit and to keep them in special institutions. That is a pathway of reform strewn with many obstacles and "unfit" is somewhat harder to define than "inane" or some other words that are applied to defectives.

The Decatur Review is urging the establishment of a comfort station and says that the coming of the American Legion convention in that city will emphasize the comfort station need. That is but another name for a rest room of the kind it is hoped may be established in the Morgan county court house thru the co-operation of various organizations and the Morgan county board of commissioners.

An Iowa congressman has introduced a bill which asks a 25 per cent reduction in freight on grain, coal, hay and cotton and some other commodities in which farmers are especially interested. The congressman believes that such a reduction would immediately result in better prices for farm products. No doubt the higher prices would obtain, but prosperity could not be of the permanent type if the freight cut is more drastic than the roads can stand.

Many people believe that the passage of the railroad funding bill would help out the whole situation and make freight reductions the more feasible.

WHAT HAVE YOU LEARNED?

(In Forbes Magazine)

If someone entered your office right now and asked you to write down what your years in business have taught you, what reply would you make?

No matter how many years you have been in business, whether five or fifty, your contact with men and women and the experiences you have had must have taught you something worth while.

Is it possible for you to condense what you have learned into a few short sentences?

To illustrate what I mean let me set down here what A. B. Farquhar says sixty-five years in business have taught him.

1.—That it is, as a rule, safe to trust human beings. Comparatively few are unfair, if you are fair yourself.

2.—That troubles and apparent difficulties are but stepping-stones to progress—the most practical way of learning—and as

Greeley said, "The way to resume is to resume."

3.—That there is nothing that will take the place of work either to gain success or to gain happiness or to gain both—and I think it is possible to gain both if in striving and working for success the dollar is not put above the man.

4.—That one can and must keep faith with and in one's self.

5.—That God is not mocked.

6.—That one's only enemy is one's self. In the ultimate no one can hurt you but yourself.

A Morgan county boy 17 years of age has signed a written confession that he shot his step-father to death, angered because of the father's refusal to give him a dollar.

If Chicago methods are followed, the next thing will be the repudiation of the confession and the story that the lad was not at all responsible for the crime.

Certain it is that there can be no claim that this confession was obtained after the prisoner had been robbed of sleep and then prodded with questions until a nervous breakdown and a confession came. The lad was under arrest less than 24 hours and the interview by the state's attorney and the sheriff with him was just about a half hour in length.

As one contemplates the case it surpasses belief that a lad normal in every way would commit so heinous a crime for such a trivial cause.

NORTHMINSTER PLAYS KUMLER M. E. TODAY

The Northminster baseball team will play the Kumler M. E. church baseball team the second game of the 1921 championship church series at Indeez park Saturday afternoon. The game is scheduled to start at 3:00 p. m. if weather conditions permit. The first game of the series was played at Surfingfield Saturday, Sept. 24, the Northminster team winning 3 to 2.

Claude Jewsbury will be on the mound for the Northminster team and T. Nunes behind the log, while Jones and Jones will probably work for the Kumler's. A very good game is expected as both teams have a strong lineup. In the first game Jewsbury let the Springfield boys down with only three bingles.

The Northminster team will use every effort to win this game which if won by them will end the series. There will be no admission charged and everyone is invited to attend the game.

A Modern Drama of Love, Mystery and Revenge in San Francisco's Chinatown

"A Tale of Two Worlds" is the sort of story that only Gouverneur Morris could write. It is a drama that starts in Pekin during the Boxer uprising and carries one across the sea to Frisco's Chinatown. It has thrills, romance, fights, action—You are going to love it.

A TALE OF TWO WORLDS

A drama of the Forbidden City of China and the famous Chinatown of San Francisco. It is a love-story, a mystery, a melodrama—but above all, a rattling fine picture that runs the gamut of emotions and ends in a way that will leave you gasping.

COGAN DID NOT COMMIT MURDERS

The Kalamazoo Gazette prints the following concerning the release of Gus Cogan, once a patient here at Jacksonville State Hospital. Cogan caused something of a sensation by claiming he was guilty of the Dowdall, Mich., murders. His story was untrue.

Following advice received from the Jacksonville, Illinois, asylum, stating that Gus Cogan, held in the county jail here is a harmless lunatic and in no way connected with the murders which he thinks he committed. Under Sheriff Curtis Pringle this morning had Cogan escorted to the county line by officers. He was left there and advised to move on. The Illinois asylum had declined to send anyone to Kalamazoo after Cogan, and as Cogan is an Illinois resident, he could not be received at the state hospital here.

Funerals

Tendick.
Funeral services for Mrs. Sabilla Tendick who died Tuesday morning, were held at the family residence, 502 West College avenue, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Tendick was the widow of the late Godfrey Tendick and on account of long residence in Jacksonville was one of the best known families in the city. Mrs. Tendick was born in June, 1836 and for sixty nine years lived in this city. She died in her 85th year after a long illness which began last June.

Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of the First Christian church, who was a personal friend of the deceased, deeply moved the large gathering of those who attended the funeral.

Mrs. H. C. Veltman sang two beautiful hymns during the services.

Miss Adelle Heintz, Miss Mittie Godfrey, Mrs. C. Williamson and Mrs. Charles Hopper had charge of the many beautiful floral tributes. The pall bearers were John Keemer, Deem Rapp, John Reid, Fred Tendick, Frank Tendick, and William Kastrup. Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Among those who attended the funeral from outside of the city were: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Tendick, Miss Elizabeth Tendick, Canton, Ill.; Mrs. Gertrude Tendick, of Peoria; Mrs. Elmer Porter, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Porter, Bloomington; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Rehfeldt, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Minnie Tendick and Mrs. Rena Hohn, Mount Pulaski, Ill.; Mrs. Mary Lang, Miss Flora Lang and Mrs. Charles Plummer, Virginia; Edw. Kastrup, Springfield; Henry Tendick, Miss Bertha Tendick, Miss Emma Tendick and Miss Mattie Tendick of Rockbridge, Ill.

The tears of millions would wash away "The Blot."

MATRIMONY

Jolly-Fanning
The marriage of Miss Mary Fanning to Paul S. Jolly has just become known. The young people were married in Hannibal, Mo. the 26th of September, by Justice E. R. Dent. After the ceremony they returned to their separate homes.

Mrs. Jolly is of this city and the groom is from Franklin. Mrs. Jolly is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fanning of Murrayville and has been living in Jacksonville for about a year and a half. She attended the Murrayville schools and the Brown's Business College here. She has been living in this city on North Prairie street. Mr. Jolly who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Jolly of Franklin, is also well known here. He went thru the schools of his town and is now employed by his father who owns a meat market in Franklin.

The newlyweds have many friends in this neighborhood who will be very much surprised to learn of the wedding.

Gallagher-Brodhage.
The marriage of Dr. James E. Gallagher and Mrs. Louise Brodhage both of Chicago, was solemnized at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Goacher, 118 West Morton avenue. The ceremony was performed by Justice C. C. Bayha and was witnessed by Mrs. Goacher and Mrs. B. R. Bishop, sisters of the groom.

Dr. Gallagher, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gallagher of Woodson, is well and favorably known in this county. He is a dentist by profession. The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. Gallagher will unite in extending hearty congratulations and good wishes for a happy wedded life.

COL. O. C. SMITH WILL HEAD SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Benton Man Named Managing Officer of State Institution—Succeeds Mr. White October 20th.

Col. Oscar C. Smith of Benton, Ill., is to succeed H. T. White as managing officer of the State School for the Deaf, according to an announcement made yesterday. It is understood that the change is to become effective Oct. 20.

Col. Smith was in Jacksonville Thursday in company with Dr. E. L. Hill visited the State School for the Deaf, inspected the buildings and had a conference with Mr. White. The announcement that the visitor had been appointed to be the head of the institution was not made by the department of welfare until Friday. Mr. White himself made the announcement to teachers and employees of the school.

Col. Smith served in the world war and was both at a cantonment in this country and in the overseas service. He is 43 years of age and has a wife and two children. It is understood that he spent a number of years in teaching work and subsequently studied law and was admitted to the bar. He has a war record which gave him special prominence in his home county of Marion.

Mr. White some years ago was superintendent of schools in Greene county and later was in charge of the Soldiers' Orphans Home in Normal. He has had a good many years of experience in the educational work in which he is engaged. Mr. White's numerous friends will regret he is to leave Jacksonville.

Have you no sense of shame? The Blot.

DR. RAMMELKAMP MADE ADDRESS TO CHURCHMEN

At the meeting of the Congregational Brotherhood last night Dr. Charles H. Rammelkamp made the address. His theme was "Moral and Religious Tendencies in Education." The address followed the serving of an excellent supper prepared under the supervision of J. P. Lip-pincott and Arthur B. Fairbank. The president of the Brotherhood is El Spink and he introduced Dr. Rammelkamp. The speaker mentioned the difficulties of providing religious education thru the schools in a country where church and state are separated. He referred also to some of the tendencies of present times which interfere with religious education. An explanation was given of the Garey plan and Dr. Rammelkamp presented the whole theme in a way which made his auditors recognize the importance and seriousness of the theme.

READJUSTMENT OF WAGES AND PRICES FAVORED

Manufacturers Committee Has Majority Report Ready

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Practical completion of a majority report on permanent measures for the betterment of business thruout the country was effected today by the manufacturers' committee of the national conference on unemployment. Whether a minority report will be submitted to the full conference when it reassembles Tuesday was not disclosed.

On the question of business readjustment the majority of the committee was understood to hold the view that readjustment of wages and prices downwards was a necessity precedent to a commercial revival of the nation's industry could spring. In connection with the readjustment process the report was understood to favor lower freight rates to permit a greater flow of commerce.

Passing of the railway funding bill for the financial relief of the carriers now pending in congress, was understood to be regarded by the report as an important step in economic betterment while the discontinuance of functions of the railroad labor board which come in conflict with the activities of the interstate commerce commission was regarded favorably.

Legislation changing the Adams-on-eight hour law was understood to be suggested as a means of more readily accomplishing industrial readjustments. On the subject of taxation the report was understood to favor a program lightening burdens while at the same time providing ample revenues for the federal government.

Unanimity Lacking
Lack of unanimity upon various features of the report was indicated by committee members who, however, declined to discuss the report until it was made public at the full conference.

The resignation of W. H. Stackhouse, of Springfield, Ohio, as chairman of the committee which includes Samuel Gompers and Charles M. Schwab, was announced. Mr. Stackhouse said he was compelled to return home on business. James A. Campbell of Youngstown, Ohio, was named as his successor.

Emergency measures for the relief of unemployment adopted by the conference were said to be in operation in all parts of the country. Cooperation of the railroads in making effective the conference's recommendations was understood to have been tendered by a number of railway executives in conference today with Secretary Hoover. The executives were believed to have evidence to aid in meeting the general situation.

Among the executives at the conference were Howard Elliott of the Northern Pacific; R. S. Loett of the Union Pacific; Julius Nuttschnitt of the Southern Pacific; Alfred H. Smith of the New York Central; Samuel Rea of the Pennsylvania; C. H. Markham of the Illinois Central; and T. De Witt Cuyler, president of the Association of Railroad Executives.

LITERBERRY BAPTIST AID SOCIETY MEETS

The Ladies Aid of the Literberry Baptist church held a regular meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. A. Dunlap. There were twenty-two members and guests present and all found the program an entertaining one. The program was a varied one, a large number of women taking part. In the contests prizes were won by Mrs. Grace Ogle and Mrs. Fred Henderson. Several selections on the piano were given by Mrs. Durrell Crum and were much enjoyed.

At the business session plans were made for the next meeting which is to be held the latter part of the month. It was also decided to pack a box of clothing and other articles to be sent to the needy ones in Europe.

A social hour and refreshments followed the program and business session.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS COL. SMITH

Famous Soldier Talks at Central Christian Church—Makes Strong Appeal for Eradication of Drink.

Central Christian church auditorium was packed last evening when Col. Dan Morgan Smith, commander of the famous Battalion of Death, delivered a masterful address against alcoholism. Col. Smith is a speaker of remarkable delivery and told most eloquently of those terrible battle scenes and hand to hand conflicts, the cheerful sacrifices of the American soldiers, bravery unsurpassed and of the indomitable will to win of our boys, who gave all to save our United States from the ravages of barbarous people.

The next part of the address revealed the purpose of the occasion, that of a world wide fight against alcoholism. The speaker told with graphic force of the work of the foreign missionary organizations in practically every corner of the globe. In the last fourteen months, Col. Smith stated, more had been done in the missionary field than in any ten years of previous time.

There is one great stumbling block in the triumphant march of Christianity, and that is drink. The work of the World League Against Alcoholism must be carried to every area where the Cross of Christianity is found. Then and then only will the work of civilization take its proper onward course.

Replies to Scoffers
At this point the speaker interjected a few remarks for those scoffers of prohibition who claim it is not a success. He explained that prohibition has had only three years trial and that no new movement can be 100 per cent efficient in such a short time. It has been nearly two thousand years since God sent his only son into the world to lift the burdens of suffering humanity, and up to the present time only 10 per cent of the world is Christian.

Every Christian person should back this movement to eradicate the great evil of alcoholism. This great nation of ours has adopted as a part of the constitution an amendment to wipe out alcoholism and it is the duty of every citizen to take this seriously and do all in his power to uphold the constitution as the fundamental law of the United States. We must heed the call of other countries too, as well as that of our own. We must remove all politicians that are in the control of liquor money.

The war on alcoholism is the greatest war that will ever be waged. It will be greater even than the war that the world has just gone thru and its effects will be far greater. The country must not sacrifice all the results of the world war for a bottle of whiskey. We are fighting for civilization thru prohibition just as surely as we fought the Huns.

Col. Smith then made a plea for pledges for some amount to be paid monthly, for five years. A large majority of the audience responded and many placed checks in the envelopes for the entire amount. Others paid for one year and when the cards were collected a large contribution was taken in.

In conclusion Col. Smith said a few words for the American Legion, asking every soldier and sailor in the audience to join that great organization which is one of the powerful forces for good in the country today.

URGES PARTY TO ADOPT CONVENTION PLAN

Alexander McDonald, formerly of this city and now an attorney of Hugo, Okla., has for a number of years been prominent in the affairs of the Democratic party in the southwestern state. Some time since Mr. McDonald was appointed a member of a committee of three to draft a new constitution for the party organization.

At a recent conference held in Shawnee, Mr. McDonald made a strong plea for selection of delegates by the convention system. At the same time he expressed the belief that the proposal to return to the convention system would be defeated by the county delegates and the former Jacksonville man predicted that if this is done the Democrats will not win in the next election.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown" face, a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the most effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

fortably for two innings. The Yankees got to him in the third however and he was taken out with the bases full, none out and three runs in. Another run was scored by the Yankees before "Jesse" Barnes, who relieved him, could retire the side.

Swawkey met his fate like Tony in the same inning. His wildness was responsible. After he had forced two runs over the plate by passing batters Jack Quinn was called to the mound. Two of the Giants, Shawkey left on bases, subsequently killed but there was no more scoring off Quinn until the tempestuous seventh. Meanwhile Barnes was twirling a heady, steady game, and holding the Yankees safe, as he did to the end.

Then came the Yankees' third inning. Schang drew a base on balls and reached third on Shawkey's single to right. Miller hit for a base, scoring Schang and moving Shawkey to second. Toney gave Peckinpaugh a base on balls and all corners were filled.

Cheers of the Yankee fans rocked the stands as the home king walked to the plate. Ruth slammed Toney's sixth pitch and drove it to center for a single sending home both Shawkey and Miller. Peck took third. Here Toney was waved off the mound and Barnes was brought out of the bull pen. Ruth went out trying to steal. Bob Meusel walked and Peck scored on Pipp's out. This ended the Yankee's scoring in the inning.

The four run lead looked big to the Giants as they went to bat. Barnes, first man up, poked a single to left. Burns went out on a fly to center but captain Bancroft laced a single to right. Barnes stopping at second, Shawkey threw wide to Frisch who walked, filling the bags.

Shawkey Loses Control

Shawkey appeared to lose control and passed Young, forcing home Barnes with the Giants' first run of the series. Shawkey then passed Kelly forcing home Bancroft. Quinn replaced Shawkey with the bases still loaded. Frisch scored while "Irish" Meusel was being putout at first. Young and Kelly moving up. Young came home with the tying run when Rawlings hit a grounder to Peck who could not handle the ball in time to throw out the Giants' second baseman. Snyder fouled out to Pipp and left the score tied in knot until the Giants hectic seventh inning.

The National League leaders made more hits in the seventh than in the two previous games of the series. Frisch began the attack by slashing a single to center and went to third on Young's two bagger to right field. Kelly walked and the bases were filled. There was tremendous cheering when "Irish" Meusel slammed a double to right sending home Frisch and Young. Kelly stopped at third on the hit. Rawlings came thru with a single to center, scoring Kelly and Meusel. Here Collins took up the pitching burden for the Yankees but was unable to sweep back the attacking Giants. After Rawlings went out trying to steal, Snyder, Barnes and Burns bit out singles amid frenzied rooting. With the bases full Bancroft lifted a sacrifice fly to Ruth scoring Snyder. Frisch walked and the National followers broke into tumultuous cheering as Young swept the bases with a tremendous three bagger to left-center. Collins then waved good night to the crowd.

Fans "Ride" Yankees

Pitcher Rogers, his rescuer threw out Kelly at first, ending the slaughter to the great relief of Yankee rooters some of whom began to "ride" the American League champions. Twelve Giants were at bat in the inning getting eight hits and two bases on balls for a total of eight runs. One man, Young was left on base.

Each team added a run to their totals in the eighth inning. Frank Baker, home run king of other days, was given a cheer when he batted for Pitcher Rogers in the Yankees ninth but the best he could do was to give Irish Meusel a long fly.

The official figures showed an attendance of 36,509, with gross receipts of $119,007, the latter again a new record. The advisory board's share of the receipts is $17,851.05, the players' share $60,693.57 and the two club's share $40,462.38.

stay on the farm and attend to work instead of running about the country. That made me very mad and I resolved to get even with him.

"I went to the house, secured his double-barrelled shot gun and going back to the field, shot him. I did not hide behind a corn shock but Mr. Gaddis did not see me coming. He had just marked a new land and was driving up a slope toward me. When he was not far away I took aim and fired. He fell to the ground and I hurried to the house with the shot gun, left it there and then went to Concord and told Mr. Nickel."

The lad was very much affected as he wept and told the story to the state's attorney and Sheriff. He was asked if he was willing to sign a written statement and it was explained to him fully that any statement made would later be used against him as evidence.

Pires then indicated his entire willingness to sign the statement and said that it had not been obtained thru threats or promises and that he affixed his signature with full knowledge of the responsibility for the crime that he was thus taking.

Pires, who is seventeen years old, is the younger son of Mrs. Gaddis. He attended the second ward school and subsequently the David Prince. Since his mother's marriage to Mr. Gaddis he has spent most of his time at the farm home. It is known that Pires did not work steadily enough to satisfy his step-father and he made two frequent requests for money.

Lad Had No Funds

From the testimony at the request it appears that the boy did not have the money to pay the barber for a hair cut he had tried to borrow money there. The Ford car he owned was in a garage needing repairs but one of the witnesses testified that he had been instructed by the owner of the garage not to make the repairs until arrangements had been made for the payment of the bill. Other bits of evidence show that Pires was without funds.

Just what will happen in a case of this kind cannot now be foretold. The boy has made a confession to murder and unless this is repudiated the case can go before the grand jury and the court at the coming term on its present basis.

The death penalty would not be imposed in such a case and no doubt the age of the offender would have much to do with the length of the sentence given.

In cases of this kind there is always the possibility of a question of mental responsibility. In this instance Pires cannot be claimed to be insane. He was second thru intimidation or any third degree methods.

Verdict of Jury.

The coroner's jury included Alfred G. Brockhouse, foreman; J. M. Leonard, John T. Kershaw, T. W. Murphy, Ora T. Hamm and C. E. Newton, clerk. The language of the jury's verdict was as follows:

"In the matter of the inquisition on the body of James T. Gaddis, deceased, held at Concord, on the 7th day of October, 1921, we, the undersigned jurors, sworn to inquire of the death of James T. Gaddis on his death by wounds in the neck, caused by shot fired from a shot gun in the hands of a party other than himself, and we recommend from the circumstances surrounding the case that Ellsworth Pires should be held to await the action of the grand jury."

This verdict was reached after the jury had heard the testimony of Mrs. Gaddis, John T. Webb, Lloyd Smith, John Theivogt, George Johnson, J. L. Wallace, A. M. Johnson, F. Nickel, Ernest Loughary, James Hacker, Louis Hess and Dr. H. C. Woltman, county physician.

Mrs. Gaddis On Stand.

Mrs. Gaddis testified that she left her home Monday morning and accompanied her sister from this city on a trip to Springfield, returning to Jacksonville Wednesday. She said that Mr. Gaddis and she had never had any trouble and testified that her husband had brooded over some trouble in the Masonic lodge and that he had not been well. Then she related how her son had driven to Jacksonville and told her that Mr. Gaddis had shot himself and that he had picked up the gun and taken it to the house.

John T. Webb, barber in Concord, testified that Ellsworth Pires was at his shop Wednesday afternoon and after securing a hair cut asked the barber to lend him money to go to Springfield after his mother. The young man, the barber said, promised to repay him the day after. Webb testified that when he asked Pires where Jim Gaddis was that Pires replied: "Damned if I know. I guess he is out about the place somewhere."

Lloyd Smith testified to being with Pires shortly after 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon and said that Pires then said that he was going home to shave and would then come back and get his car from the garage.

No Financial Troubles.

John Theivogt of the Arenzville bank testified that Mr. Gaddis came to his home Wednesday night to renew a note for a few hundred dollars. He said that Mr. Gaddis was seemingly in good spirits, that he had no financial difficulties and that his credit at the bank was excellent and that they were in no way pushing him for payment of the note.

George Johnson, farmer, testified that he lives on a farm east

BAIBE RUTH MAY BE OUT OF GAME TODAY

New York, Oct. 7.—Baibe Ruth was suffering tonight from a severe abscess on his left arm, which his physician said would make it doubtful if he could get into the game tomorrow and may prevent him from playing for several days.

FATE OF BLUE SKY LAW IN BALANCE

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 7.—The fate of Illinois "blue sky" law, the securities act, was left hanging in the balance by the supreme court today when it allowed a rehearing of the Rock Island case in which David Brady attacked the constitutionality of the act on the grounds that it is discriminatory by granting special privileges to some corporations while denying them to others.

CAPTAIN OF STEAMSHIP IN TROUBLE

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Captain A. B. Randall of the Steamship Hudson, today was suspended from the command of his ship by the United States Line on a charge of "not using good judgment" when he failed Wednesday to stop the vessel and aid three men adrift off Fire Island. His case will be referred to the United States Steamboat Inspectors for final action.

Captain Randall, his first and second officers, the wireless operator and cabin boy of the Hudson were called before T. H. Rosbottom, general manager of the line for a hearing.

Confronting them were the three men who were occupants of the disabled launch who had complained that the Hudson would not heed their signals of distress.

Captain Randall admitted seeing the launch and the flags which the men waved. He said he instructed his second officer to have the radio operator get in touch with the Steamer Lackawanna Valley which was opposite his ship and on the other side of the launch. He explained he had mails aboard and asked if the Lackawanna Valley would render assistance if needed.

The wireless operator told of attempts to get the Lackawanna Valley to answer his call, and, not raising their operator he sent the message anyhow.

Captain Randall admitted, according to Mr. Rosbottom, that he was convinced a dangerous sea was running for a boat of that size, and that in his opinion it was the duty of the captain to have picked them up.

Other Witnesses.

Another witness was James Hacker, who testified that Gaddis had once complained to him that the Pires boy ran around and spent money.

L. C. Hess told of having asked Mr. Gaddis if he could get Ellsworth to do some work for him. The latter replied that he would ask Ellsworth. Later he reported to Mr. Hess that Ellsworth was going to Springfield and made comment that Ellsworth would have to get to work pretty soon or there would be something doing.

Dr. H. C. Woltman, county physician, gave testimony as to the result of the postmortem examination. He said that the ragged open wound on the area of the neck was about 1 1/2 inches in diameter and extended thru the skin and tissue of the neck, including the trachea, wind pipe and esophagus, down to the vertebrae of the neck. The wound extended to the right and back to the muscles of the back above and back of the right shoulder. In these muscles several small shot were found and removed. Surrounding the large wound in the skin of the neck were many small perforating wounds, as the scattered shot had pierced the skin. There were 22 holes found in the skin outside the large wound. No powder marks were in evidence.

CHANGE IN GRAIN FIRM MADE KNOWN

Partnership Between F. J. Blackburn and W. J. Houston Dissolved—Firm Operates Three Elevators.

Announcement was made yesterday that the partnership existing between Fletcher J. Blackburn and Walter J. Houston has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Houston has sold his interest to Mr. Blackburn who will continue the business which includes the elevators in Jacksonville and Naples and one at Sinclair which the company has had under lease.

The changing conditions in the grain business resulted in the decision of Mr. Blackburn and Mr. Houston to dissolve their partnership and the relations between the two men are entirely friendly. Mr. Houston owns a farm north of Alexander in addition to some other real estate and will probably devote his attention to the farming and cattle business in which he was previously engaged on a large scale.

PICTURE MEN ARE INDICTED

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 7.—A. J. Lawrence, manager of a theater at Waterloo, Iowa, and Frank Nemo, Minneapolis motion picture promoter were indicted today by a federal grand jury here on two counts alleging refusal to pay the government taxes collected as theater admissions. The grand jury returned 89 other indictments including 66 charging violation of the prohibition act.

BRITISH PREMIER TO CONFER WITH LABOR COMMITTEE

Present Unemployment Regarded as National Emergency

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The vital question of unemployment was considered today by a joint conference of the general council of the trades union congress, labor party executives and labor members of parliament during a two hour session. In answer to a request from Premier Lloyd George the Laborites replied that they would appoint a committee to meet the premier early next week to confer regarding practical measures for dealing with what is described as "the present national emergency."

The cabinet also discussed the question at its afternoon session in an endeavor to put forward a plan which is yet in its early stages. The Laborites' reply to Mr. Lloyd George said a committee would be appointed to explain our proposals and examine any made by the government but not as members of any joint committee including financiers and employees as suggested by you—nor can your representatives be held responsible for the policy ultimately adopted by the government.

Premier Lloyd George replied that he would be glad to meet the committee "early next week."

The conference then decided to send a further letter to the premier which expressed surprise that he had failed to arrange an immediate meeting. The letter concluded:

"Our representatives have been appointed on the assumption that you probably would wish to meet them today and the conference re-assembled this afternoon in that belief."

CONVICTS FIGHT FIRE IN PRISON

Waupun, Wis., Oct. 7.—Convicts of the state prison here in relays battled tonight against a smoldering fire in a huge pile of Mexican fibre which broke into flames at 10 o'clock this morning. Warden Coles estimated the loss at $45,000. The cause of the fire is a mystery.

PRICE OF WHEAT
TAKES SETBACK

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Urgent
selling based largely on reports of elevator congestion here and in the south and southwest had a depressing effect on the wheat market today. Closing quotations were heavy 31 to 41c net lower,
with December $1.09 1/2 to $1.09 1/4
and May $1.13 1/4 to $1.14.

Corn lost 1/4c to 1c and oats
1 1/2 to 2c. In provisions the outcome varied from unchanged figures to 35c decline.

It was during the last half of the session that the setback in
the value of wheat took place.
Earlier the tendency was chiefly in favor of higher prices scattered speculative buying having developed on account of a halt in liquidation and a rise in selling.

Later, however, support was lacking and with persistent offerings especially from houses with northwestern connections the market rapidly gave way. The bearish gossip current at this junction included assertions that unless clearances from New Orleans soon increased it would be necessary to put a railroad embargo against that port because of probable exhaustion of available storage room there. Elevators here and in the southwest were also reported as about filled. Under such circumstances the finish was at the lowest prices yet this season.

Corn and oats declined with wheat. Wet weather was somewhat of a check on the downward slide of corn, but oats followed wheat to a new low price record
for 1921.

In provisions the effect of the weakness of grain more than counterbalanced higher quotations on hogs.

DUN'S REPORT
TODAY WILL SAY
(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Dun's
tomorrow will say:
"With recognition of the unfavorable features which still prevail, the fact is nevertheless clear that business is reviving gradually. Some of the current improvement is sensational a sudden turn to lower temperature quickening retail trading, but gains also appear which plainly are not due to weather influences. Movement in basic industries are especially important because of their direct and indirect bearing on different lines, and a further recovery in iron and steel and lumber, among other branches, serves to strengthen sentiment. The Pacific Northwest reports an enlarging demand for lumber from the east while iron and steel output at leading centers is rising above the point of extreme depression of last summer. Such phases as these do not measure fully the scope of the economic recupera-tion but are representative of the constructive changes that are in progress and tend to modify the unsatisfactory aspects which continue present."

TRADING IN STOCKS
WAS PERFUNCTORY

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The cleavage between artificial and actual conditions in the securities markets became more clearly defined today. Trading in stocks was rather perfunctory while the investment inquiry assumed more impressive proportions.

Aside from the extensive transactions in Liberty bonds and Victory notes, with most of the former at new high prices for the year announcement was made of the successful flotation of the two foreign loans.

The Rio De Janeiro and Queensland (Australia) offerings
each of $12,000,000 were quickly absorbed.

In the stock market dealings were dominated by speculative shares, chiefly secondary domestic oil. These were lifted one to three points, evidently under professional population, on the further advance of prices made by producers of crude products.

Total sales (par value) $17-650,000.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there is no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

GIANTS AWAKEN
FROM LETHARGY
TRAMP ON YANKS

fortably for two innings. The Yankees got to him in the third however and he was taken out with the bases full, none out and three runs in. Another run was scored by the Yankees before "Jess" Barnes, who relieved him, could retire the side.

Swawkey met his fate like Toney in the same inning. His wildness was responsible.

After he had forced two runs over the plate by passing batters Jack Quinn was called to the mound. Two of the Giants, Shawkey left on bases, subsequently tallied but there was no more scoring off Quinn until the tempestuous seventh. Meanwhile Barnes was twirling a heady, steady game, and holding the Yankees safe, as he did to the end.

Then came the Yankees' third inning. Schanz drew a base on balls and reached third on Shawkey's single to right. Miller hit for a base, scoring Schanz and moving Shawkey to second. Toney gave Peckinpaugh a base on balls and all corners were filled.

Cheers of the Yankee fans rocked the stands as the home run king walked to the plate. Ruth slammed Toney's sixth pitch and drove it to center for a single sending home both Shawkey and Miller. Peck took third. Here Toney was waved off the mound and Barnes was brought out of the bull pen. Ruth went out trying to steal. Bob Meusel walked and Peck scored on Pipp's out. This ended the Yankees' scoring in the inning.

The four run lead looked big to the Giants as they went to bat. Barnes, first man up poked a single to left. Burns went out on a fly to center but captain Bancroft laced a single to right. Barnes stopping at second. Shawkey threw wide to Frisch who walked, filling the bases.

Shawkey loses control. Shawkey appeared to lose control and passed Young, forcing home Barnes with the Giants' first run of the series. Shawkey then passed Kelly forcing home Bancroft. Quinn replaced Shawkey, with the bases still loaded. Frisch scored while "Irish" Meusel was being putout at first. Young and Kelly moving up. Young came home with the tying run when Rawlings hit a grounder to Peck who could not handle the ball in time to throw out the Giants' second baseman. Snyder fouled out to Pipp and left the score tied in knot until the Giants' hectic seventh inning.

The National League leaders made more hits in the seventh than in the two previous games of the series. Frisch began the attack by slashing a single to center and went to third on Young's two bagger to right field. Kelly walked and the bases were filled. There was tremendous cheering when "Irish" Meusel slammed a double to right sending home Frisch and Young. Kelly stopped at third on the hit. Rawlings came thru with a single to center, scoring Kelly and Meusel. Here Collins took up the pitching burden for the Yanks but was unable to sweep back the attacking Giants. After Rawlings went out trying to steal, Snyder, Barnes and Burns hit out singles amid frenzied rooting. With the bases full Bancroft lifted a sacrifice fly to Ruth scoring Snyder. Frisch walked and the National followers broke into tumultuous cheering as Young swept the bases with a tremendous three bagger to left-center. Collins then waved good night to the crowd.

Fans "Ride" Yankees
Pitcher Rogers, his rescuer threw out Kelly at first, ending the slaughter to the great relief of Yankee rooters some of whom began to "ride" the American League champions. Twelve Giants were at bat in the inning getting eight hits and two bases on balls for a total of eight runs. One man, Young, was left on base. Each team added a run to their totals in the eighth inning. Frank Baker, home run king of other days, was given a cheer when he batted for Pitcher Rogers in the Yankees ninth but the best he could do was to give Irish Meusel a long fly.

The official figures showed an attendance of 35,509, with gross receipts of $119,907. The advisory board's share of the receipts is $17,851.95, the players' share $60,693.57 and the two club's share $40,462.38.

New York, Oct. 7.—Babe Ruth was suffering tonight from a severe abscess on his left arm, which his physician said would make it doubtful if he could get into the game tomorrow and may prevent him from playing for several days.

FATE OF BLUE SKY LAW IN BALANCE

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 7.—The fate of Illinois "blue sky" law, the securities act, was left hanging in the balance by the supreme court today when it allowed a rehearing of the Rock Island case in which David Brady attacked the constitutionality of the act on the grounds that it is discriminatory by granting special privileges to some corporations while denying them to others.

PIRES CONFESSES TO KILLING GADDIS

stay on the farm and attend to work instead of running about the country. That made me very mad and I resolved to get even with him.

"I went to the house, secured his double-barrelled shot gun and going back to the field, shot him. I did not hide behind a corn shock but Mr. Gaddis did not see me coming. He had just marked of a new land and was driving up a slope toward me. When he was not far away I took aim and fired. He fell to the ground and I hurried to the house with the shot gun, left it there and then went to Concord and told Mr. Nickel."

The lad was very much affected as he wept and told the story to the state's attorney and Sheriff. He was asked if he was willing to sign a written statement and it was explained to him fully that any statement made would later be used against him as evidence.

Pires then indicated his entire willingness to sign the statement and said that if he had not been obtained thru threats or promises and that he affixed his signature with full knowledge of the responsibility for the crime that he was thus taking.

Pires, who is seventeen years old, is the younger son of Mrs. Gaddis. He attended the second ward school and subsequently the David Prince. Since his mother's marriage to Mr. Gaddis he has spent most of his time at the farm home. It is known that Pires did not work steadily enough to satisfy his step-father and he made too frequent requests for money.

Lad Had No Funds

From the testimony at the request it appears that the boy did not have the money to pay the barber for a hair cut he had and tried to borrow money there. The Ford car he owned was in a garage needing repairs but one of the witnesses testified that he had been instructed by the owner to have the car repaired until arrangements had been made for the payment of the bill. Other bits of evidence show that Pires was without funds.

Just what will happen in a case of this kind cannot now be foretold. The boy has made a confession to murder and unless this is repudiated the case can go before the grand jury and the court at the coming term on its present basis.

The death penalty would not be imposed in such a case and no doubt the age of the offender would have much to do with the length of the sentence, given. In cases of this kind there is always the possibility of a question of mental responsibility being made a factor. Certainly in this instance it cannot be claimed that the confession was secured thru intimidation or any third degree methods.

Verdict of Jury.

The coroner's jury included: J. Fred G. Brockhouse, foreman; J. M. Leonard, John T. Kershaw, T. W. Murphy, John T. Hamm and C. E. Newton, clerk. The language of the jury's verdict was as follows:

"In the matter of the inquisition on the body of James T. Gaddis, deceased, held at Concord, on the 7th day of October, 1921, we, the undersigned jurors, sworn to inquire of the death of James T. Gaddis on oath do find that he came to his death by wounds in the neck, caused by shot fired from a shot gun in the hands of a party other than himself, and we recommend from the circumstances surrounding the case that Ellsworth Pires should be held to await the action of the grand jury."

This verdict was reached after the jury had heard the testimony of Mrs. Gaddis, John T. Webb, Lloyd Smith, John Theivogit, George Johnson, J. L. Wallace, A. M. Johnson, F. C. Nickel, Ernest Loughary, James Hacker, Louis Hess and Dr. H. C. Woltman, county physician.

Mrs. Gaddis On Stand.

Mrs. Gaddis testified that she left her home Monday morning and accompanied her sister from this city on a trip to Springfield, returning to Jacksonville Wednesday. She said that Mr. Gaddis and she had never had any trouble and testified that her husband had brooded over some trouble in the Masonic lodge and that he had not been well. Then she related how her son had driven to Jacksonville and told her that Mr. Gaddis had shot himself and that he had picked up the gun and taken it to the house.

John T. Webb, barber in Concord, testified that Ellsworth Pires was at his shop Wednesday afternoon and after securing a hair cut asked the barber to lend him money to go to Springfield after his mother. The young man, the barber said, promised to repay him the day after. Webb testified that when he asked Pires where Jim Gaddis was that Pires replied: "Dammed if I know. I guess he is out about the place somewhere."

Lloyd Smith testified to being with Pires shortly after 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon and said that Pires then said that he was going home to shave and would then come back and get his car from the garage.

No Financial Troubles.
John Theivogit of the Arenzville bank testified that Mr. Gaddis came to his home Wednesday night to renew a note for a few hundred dollars. He said that Mr. Gaddis was seemingly in good spirits, that he had no financial difficulties and that his credit at the bank was excellent and that they were in no way pushing him for payment of the note.

George Johnson, farmer, testified that he lives on a farm east of Concord and that about 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon he heard a gun shot sound coming from the vicinity of the Gaddis farm.

Rev. J. L. Wallace was the next witness and testified that when he drove by the Gaddis farm about 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon he saw Ellsworth Pires in the field on the north side of the road coming down the hill.

F. C. Nickel, another witness, and a brother-in-law of the dead man, said that after he was notified of the death of Mr. Gaddis he drove out to the field and saw Ellsworth Pires by the body and that the latter said he had picked up the gun there. The witness said that this was the same gun that Pires later showed to the officers. Further, the witness said that the right barrel had been shot off but there was no empty shell in the gun.

Ernest Loughary and William Filson testified to some minor facts.

Other Witnesses.
Another witness was James Hacker, who testified that Gaddis had once complained to him that the Pires boy ran around and spent money.

L. C. Hess told of having asked Mr. Gaddis if he could get Ellsworth to do some work for him. The latter replied that he would ask Ellsworth. Later he reported to Mr. Hess that Ellsworth was going to Springfield and made comment that Ellsworth would have to get to work pretty soon or there would be something doing.

Dr. H. C. Woltman, county physician, gave testimony as to the result of the postmortem examination. He said that the wound open wound on the area of the neck was about 1 1/2 inches in diameter and extended thru the skin and tissue of the neck, including the trachea, wind pipe and esophagus, down to the vertebrae of the neck. The wound extended to the right and back to the muscles of the back above and back of the right shoulder. In these muscles several small shot were found and removed. Surrounding the large wound in the skin of the neck were many small perforating wounds, as the scattered shot had pierced the skin. There were 22 holes found in the skin outside the large wound. No powder marks were in evidence.

CHANGE IN GRAIN FIRM MADE KNOWN

Partnership Between F. J. Blackburn and W. J. Houston Dissolved—Firm Operates Three Elevators.

Announcement was made yesterday that the partnership existing between Fletcher J. Blackburn and Walter J. Houston has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Houston has sold his interest to Mr. Blackburn who will continue the business which includes the elevators in Jacksonville and Naples and one at Sinclair which the company has had under lease. The changing conditions in the grain business resulted in the decision of Mr. Blackburn and Mr. Houston to dissolve their partnership and the relations between the two men are entirely friendly. Mr. Houston owns a farm north of Alexander in addition to some other real estate and will probably devote his attention to the farming and cattle business in which he was previously engaged on a large scale.

CAPTAIN OF STEAMSHIP IN TROUBLE

Fails to Give Aid to Three Men Adrift in Boat

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Captain A. B. Randall of the Steamship Hudson, today was suspended from the command of his ship by the United States Line on a charge of "not using good judgment" when he failed Wednesday to stop the vessel and aid three men adrift off Fire Island. His case will be referred to the United States Steamboat inspectors for final action.

Captain Randall, his "t" and second officers, the wireless operator and cabin boy of the Hudson were called before T. H. Rosbottom, general manager of the line for a hearing.

Confronting them were the three men who were occupants of the disabled launch who had complained that the Hudson would not heed their signals of distress.

Captain Randall admitted seeing the launch and the flags which the men waved. He said he instructed his second officer to have the radio operator to get in touch with the Steamer Lackawanna Valley which was opposite his ship and on the other side of the launch. He explained he had mails aboard and asked if the Lackawanna Valley would render assistance if needed.

The wireless operator told of attempts to get the Lackawanna Valley to answer his call, and, not raising their operator he sent the message anyhow.

Captain Randall admitted, according to Mr. Rosbottom that he was convinced a dangerous sea was running for a boat of that size, and that in his opinion it was the duty of the captain to have picked them up.

BRITISH PREMIER TO CONFER WITH LABOR COMMITTEE

Present Unemployment Regarded as National Emergency

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The vital question of unemployment was considered today by a joint conference of the general council of the trades union congress, labor party executives and labor members of parliament during a two hour session. In answer to a request from Premier Lloyd George the Laborites replied that they would appoint a committee to meet the premier early next week to confer regarding practical measures for dealing with what is described as "the present national emergency."

The cabinet also discussed the question at its afternoon session in an endeavor to put forward a plan which is yet in its early stages. The Laborites reply to Mr. Lloyd George said a committee would be appointed to examine our proposals and examine any made by the government but not as members of any joint committee including financiers and employees as suggested by you—nor can your representatives be held responsible for the policy ultimately adopted by the government.

Premier Lloyd George replied that he would be glad to meet the committee "early next week."

The conference then decided to send a further letter to the premier which expressed surprise that he had failed to arrange an immediate meeting. The letter concluded:

"Our representatives have been appointed on the assumption that you probably would wish to meet them today and the conference re-assembled this afternoon in that belief."

CONVICTS FIGHT FIRE IN PRISON

Waupun, Wis., Oct. 7.—Convicts of the state prison here in relays battled tonight against a smoldering fire in a huge pile of Mexican fibre which broke into flames at 10 o'clock this morning. Warden Coles estimated the loss at $45,000. The cause of the fire is a mystery.

SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE

Annual meeting of the Social Service league will be held next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Illinois Woman's College. The annual report will be presented and all affairs relating to the organization discussed. A symposium will be presented to lay emphasis upon the activities of the various departments. There will be brief addresses when such themes as "The Morgan County Ideal," "A Chance for the Children," "Is It Worth While," and "Your Part," will be discussed.

A series of tableaux will be presented by students of the Woman's college illustrating some lines of Social Service work. The whole program will carry with it more than the usual interest.

PRICE OF WHEAT

TAKES SETBACK
(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Urgent
selling based largely on reports
of elevator congestion here and in the south and southwest had a depressing effect on the wheat
market today. Closing quotations
were heavy 34 to 41c net lower,
with December 1.09 1/2 to 1.09 1/4
and May 1.13 1/2 to 1.14.

Corn sold 3 1/2 to 1c and oats
1 1/2 to 2c. In provisions the outcome varied from unchanged figures to 35c decline.

It was during the last half of the session that the setback in
the value of wheat took place.
Earlier the tendency was chiefly
in favor of higher prices scattered
speculative buying having developed on account of a halt in liquidation and short selling.

Later, however, support was lacking and with persistent offerings
especially from houses with northwestern connections the market rapidly gave way. The bearish gossip current at this juncture included assertions that unless clearances from New Orleans soon increased it would be necessary to put a railroad embargo against that port because of probable exhaustion of availability of storage room there.

Also reported as about filled. Un-
such circumstances the finish
was at the lowest prices yet this season.

Corn and oats declined with wheat. Wet weather was somewhat of a check on the downward
slide of corn, but oats followed
wheat to a new low price record
for 1921.

In provisions the effect of the
weakness of grain more than counterbalanced higher quotations on hogs.

PLANS BEING MADE TO INSTALL NEW ORGAN

Central Christian Church Members Expected to Accomplish This in Near Future—Will Be Modern in Every Respect.

Plans are rapidly taking form and much has already been accomplished toward the installation of a new organ at Central Christian church. For the past few years the church members have been making plans and looking forward to the time when a splendid new organ, modern in every respect, should be installed.

From present indications the hopes of the congregation will be realized in the not far distant future.

The organ which is now in use was built about thirty years ago when Central Christian church occupied the old building on East State street. At the time the organ was put in the women of the Ladies Aid society, whose president was then Mrs. Lillian W. King, were the prime workers in the undertaking and brought it to a successful close. In 1906 the beautiful new church on West College avenue was erected and the organ was rebuilt. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fay paid for the rebuilding of the organ and it was installed with an electric motor at the new church.

The group of women then known as the Ladies Aid Society, No. 3, later became the Pastoral Helpers and it is this loyal and efficient organization of women who are now furthering the movement for a new organ.

Have Done Much Work. Mrs. Lillian W. King is the president of this organization whose members have proved that no undertaking is too great.

This same society has, in recent years, paid for the installing of a new heating plant for the basement of the church, installed a new lighting system for the church auditorium, and within the last year financed the redecorating of the auditorium. Sunday school and basement rooms of the church. The Pastoral Helpers already have a large amount of cash on hand which will be turned at once into an organ fund. Other organizations of the church are planning to help with the undertaking and have sum of money on hand for the purpose.

Altho no contracts have been let, or any specifications decided upon, it is understood that the new organ will cost about ten or twelve thousand dollars. The organ committee whose members are undertaking the raising of this sum, include also men from the official board of Central Christian church. Mrs. L. W. King heads the committee as chairman.

The other members are George T. Douglas, treasurer, Frank Pioneer, secretary Keith Montgomery J. A. Lifer Miss Elizabeth Rataichak, C. L. Mathis Dr. Charles Hopper and Dr. George Bradley.

This committee is now working on plans for the new instrument. The members are investigating and studying the various makes of organs and when the investigation is complete, will present it to the congregation together with a statement of the approximate cost. The present organ is in good condition and will be sold as soon as possible.

The new organ which is to be installed will be equipped with Cathedral chimes, echo pipes and will probably be a three manual instrument. It is to be of the most modern type and when built will be one of the finest instruments in the city. The undertaking of the raising of the money is a large one but the plan has the support of many of the same people who financed the building of the old organ, and this fact alone insures its success.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH
CONVENTION HELD

Tri-County Meeting at Lynnville Largely Attended—Officers Are Elected for Ensuing Year.

The Tri-county convention of Christian churches was held at Lynnville yesterday with a large number of delegates present. The first session began at 1:30 in the afternoon. A morning session had been scheduled but was not held because of rain. After a delicious dinner served by the Lynnville church, the convention was called to order by Charles Gibbs who presided during the sessions. The song service was led by Mrs. Gertrude Demereth, Winchester.

This was followed by devotional services led by Mrs. F. B. Elmore, of Winchester, who also gave an interesting report of the state convention which was recently held in Decatur. O. C. Bolman, superintendent of the West Central district, then told of the future plans of the state and national organizations. The next number was an address by F. W. Burnham of St. Louis, president of the United Christian Missionary societies, on "Our Growing Work." The rest of the afternoon session was devoted to a round table on "Leadership."

At the supper hour, the Lynnville church served a luncheon for the delegates, which was followed by a song service led by Mrs. Gertrude Demereth, with Miss Ethel McClure a s accompanist. Mr. Burnham then addressed the convention again on the subject of "World Vision." During the evening session plans were made for the next convention which will be held in Woodson in 1922. FAUGUST BABY GETS LOVING CUP

The large silver loving cup which was the grand prize of the baby week held by W. Lewis & Co. has been awarded to Master William Dwayne Faugust of 806 N. State street, Champaign, Ill. This silver loving cup was given to the baby who was weighed each month following the baby week last May and who made the greatest gain in weight and grew the largest. Master William Faugust gained eight pounds and grew 6 inches during this time and he is now 6 months old. Champaign News Gazette.

Master Wm. Dwayne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Faugust formerly of Jacksonville, Ill. Mr. Faugust's mother lives on East State street.

AGORA SOCIETY MET FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The Agora society of the Illinois college held its regular meeting Friday afternoon in the society hall.

The topic for discussion was "Modern Poets." Mary Louise Cummings gave a short biographical sketch of Edgar A. Guest, and read a number of poems by him. Dora Ausmus read a paper on Amy Lowell and a few of her poems. Mable Ruyie reviewed the life and works of Yachiel Linsay, and gave a few examples of his poetry. Winifred Butcher sang "A Little Pink Rose" by Carrie-Jacobs-Bond.

The interesting program was followed by a short business meeting. Miss Ruth Bates, a former member of the society who is teaching near eBardstown, was present at this meeting, renewing old friendships.

The tears of millions would wash away "The Blot."

CLUBS AND SOCIETY

Entertain Sigma Phi Epsilon Members Last Evening

Mrs. Frank Strawn entertained the members of the Sigma Phi Epsilon society of Illinois College last evening at her home on West State street. The guests included the society girls and the honorary members. The hostess served attractive refreshments in the course of the evening.

Miss Fiedler Honored at Dance

A delightful informal dance was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fiedler at their home on West Lafayette avenue in honor of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Fiedler. The affair was a "Holloween dance and the attractive decorations carried out the idea. During the hours from 7:30 to 10:30 almost forty guests enjoyed the hospitality of the Fiedler home. Delicious refreshments were served in the course of the evening. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Will Shibe.

Entertains Bridge Club

Mrs. Ray Hartman entertained the members of her bridge club last evening at her home on Diamond Court street. After the hours spent in playing the hostess served a delicious little supper late in the evening.

Bridge Friday in Honor of Miss Wiswell

Miss Lura Wiswell, who is to be a bride of the autumn season was the honor guest at a bridge party given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. G. B. Andre and her daughter, Mrs. Frederick Buck, Jr. of Springfield. The function was given at the Andre home on West State street and the guests were the intimate friends of the bride-to-be. A two course luncheon was served following the hours spent in playing.

Westminster Endeavor to Elect Officers

The Christian Endeavor society of Westminster church will meet about five o'clock Sunday evening at the church for a supper and an election of officers. Following the serving of supper a business meeting will be held and the new officers for the year will be elected. The regular Sunday evening devotional service will be conducted after the business session. Miss Suzanne Rhinehart is the president of the society at present.

Informal Tea in Miss Cherry's Honor

A delightful pre-nuptial event was given at the Illinois Woman's college yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Cora Cherry. Miss Olive Austin, Miss Mary Anderson, Miss Jeanette Powell and Miss Mary Johnston were the hostesses at an informal afternoon tea given in the Belles Lettres hall at four o'clock. Garden flowers were used in artistic decorations and all the appointments were such as make the affair a most pleasant one.

South Side Circle Meets With Mrs. Robertson

Mrs. W. L. Robertson was hostess to the members of the South Side Circle yesterday afternoon at her home on Mound avenue. The paper of the day was on "The Women of the White House" and was read by Mrs. Herman Weber. An interesting discussion followed and during the social hour the hostess passed delicious refreshments. The following guests were present at the meeting, Mrs. John Goltra of Los Angeles, Calif., Miss Tillie Goebel, Mrs. E. M. Tindall, Miss Mabel Goltra and Mrs. Mary Ranson.

IS WONDER WORKER
IN MATHEMATICS

Louis Fleury, Blind Prodigy, Appeared Before Rotary Club—Organization to Co-operate with Kiwanis Club in Aiding School Children.

Louis Fleury, blind Frenchman and a prodigy in mathematics was a guest of the Rotary club at the luncheon Friday. Mr. Fleury was accompanied by Mr. Woolston, managing officer of the School for the Blind, and Rotarians were very much interested in the wonderful mathematical skill that Mr. Fleury displayed.

Guests of the day were Felix E. Farrell, president of the Kiwanis club; Edward Lifer, Dr. A. M. King, Harrison King and M. R. Legg, of Jackson, Mich. Mr. Legg is a singer of unusual ability and the club enjoyed the two solos that he sang with Mr. Weener as accompanist.

Aid Plan Proposed.

At the brief business session President Riley mentioned the conference of Rotary presidents and secretaries of this district which will be held in Urbana the coming week. Mr. Riley and Dr. Kopperl will attend. Mr. Farrell told of the work which the Kiwanis club has undertaken in aiding boys and girls to attend school and mentioned that there is every reason to expect the heartiest co-operation between the members of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs in this worth while program.

Mr. Farrell said that the Kiwanis club will contribute to a special fund and in addition will collect clothing and shoes, all to be distributed thru the service of the Social Service league where the need is acute.

Mr. Fleury is 26 years of age and is now at the School for the Blind to study English. He has been in this country only a few months but is able to speak English to some extent. Several months ago the Literary Digest devoted an article to some explanation of his ability in mathematics and termed him one of the wonders of the day in this regard. The Pathfinder, another magazine of prominence, also had a recent article about Mr. Fleury.

Difficult Problems.

Questions in the extraction of square and cube root were propounded by Mr. Woolston and the answers were given almost instantaneously. For instance, Mr. Fleury was asked to give the square root of 743,764 and within three seconds time gave the correct answer, 862. In the same length of time the cube root of 47,832,147 was given correctly. Still another type of problem even more difficult was given by Mr. Woolston relating to the number of grains of corn in a box in which the number was doubled in each of the numerous compartments.

For example, the grains of corn in the fourteenth box numbered 8,192 and in the twenty-fourth box 8,588,608. The answers to these questions were made in less than three seconds' time.

Mr. Fleury also demonstrated his ability to tell instantaneously the day of the month of any certain date in the month for any year when asked. For example, he told at once that Sept. 7, 1868, occurred on Thursday and that Sept. 7, 1922, will be on Thursday.

Dr. Dollear, Judge Samuell and others were among the Rotarians who asked questions and had the answers promptly given.

HAD PROFIT IN FEEDING CATTLE

Charles H. Story farms on a somewhat extensive scale and this fall has had successful experience as a feeder. Mr. Story in July bought 24 head of yearling steers which he sold from 4.55 to $5 per head. He also had 91 head of hogs and the cattle and hogs were pastured on a clover field and fed some corn.

The cost of the hogs and cattle was $1411 and Mr. Story sold them recently for about $2500.

The figures represent a very good profit based upon the price of corn, or if you figure the profit in another way, Mr. Story sold his corn at a price very much above the market.

COLLEGE RAMBLER MAKES APPEARANCE

The first of the year's issues of the Illinois College Rambler appeared yesterday, and the magazine showed a fine start under this year's management with T. Charles Antrobus as editor-in-chief, and John R. Wilson as business manager. Departments were devoted to literature, athletics, organizations, and editorials. A poem by Henry Caldwell, graduate of the class of 1917, was a feature, with another poem, "To Sturtevant," by Irving LaRue.
